St. Joseph Most Chaste, Pray for Us

Who can ever understand how great he [St. Joseph] had to be in this virtue of virginity who was destined by the Eternal Father to be the guardian, or rather the companion, of Mary's virginity? St, Francis de Sales

God “teaches” in every human experience; God “speaks” in every act of generosity and every moment of forgiveness; God reveals his presence in our midst in the compassion, humility and peace we experience and extend. Faith is not so much about knowing but seeking, less about believing and more about trusting. To discover the sacred in our lives begins with asking the questions that tug at our souls, to dare to look deeper than what we see in order to understand what we do not see, to imagine how we can re-create the world in the love of its Creator. God is in our midst in so many ways; faith is to look for God with an open heart and generous spirit – and possessing the humility to ask the right questions and carefully consider the answers.

The Writings of St. Teresa of Jesus of the Andes

As a Secular Discalced Carmelite since the year 2000, and an educator since 1998, I, Barbara Haight Garcia, OCDS, edited a book entitled: The Writings of Teresa of Jesus of the Andes. St. Teresa of Jesus of the Andes wrote a diary and letters, during her teenage years, about her love for Jesus Christ, her vocation discernment, her work as a catechist, and her work among the poor in Santiago, Chile during the early 1900's. She was also a scholar, an athlete, and a musician – and excellent role model. I believe that this eBook would be a great addition to the curriculum for the Pembroke Diocese. This eBook can be read on a personal computer, Kindle, and other electronic devices. Cost is: $5.00 CDN. Please check out the Amazon link.

Catholics Come Home: This is an excellent website for Catholics who are struggling with their faith to help search out answers. Check it out at https://www.catholicscomehome.org/!

Praying and Working for Peace: on August 6th and 9th, 1945, the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki were ravaged by atomic bombs. Speaking to victims of this atomic warfare, Saint John Paul II said: “It is with deep emotion that I greet today all those who still carry in their bodies the signs of the destruction that was visited on them on the day of the unforgettable fire. What you endured has also inflicted a wound on the heart of every human being on earth. Your life here today is the most convincing appeal that could be addressed to all people of goodwill against war and for peace We are all indebted to you for the living and constant appeal for peace that you are.” (Nagasaki, February 26, 1981)

Together We Pray

For the children who died in residential schools throughout Canada and for all those who continue on a journey through the darkness, that there may be healing founded on truth and that the Spirit will inspire our ongoing commitment to reconciliation.

God, through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, continue to offer us correction so that your grace might change and transform us in our weakness and repentance.

Give us humility to listen when others reveal how we have failed and courage to love others as ourselves, mindful of your love for the weakest and most vulnerable among us. Amen.
