Saint Joseph, Pray for Us

For those reborn in Christ . . . especially Carson James Strack who received Holy Baptism here in his Parish Church last Sunday.

For married couples . . . especially for all those couples who celebrated the Sacrament of Matrimony in our parish church.

For all who labour . . . that safety and dignity may be shown to all who work, and that the unemployed may find gainful and meaning work.

Saint Joseph, Lover of Poverty, Pray for Us

Truly, I doubt not that the angels, wondering and adoring, came thronging in countless multitudes to that poor workshop to admire the humility of him who guarded that dear and divine child and labored at this carpenter's trade to support the son and mother who were committed to his care. St. Francis de Sales

Children possess an honesty and a generosity that we adults somehow “outgrow.” But Christ calls us to embrace the uncomplicated but genuine faith of a child: to love God and others without condition or expectation. “Child-like faith” is never discouraged, never becomes cynical or jaded, never ceases to be amazed and grateful for the many ways God reveals his presence in our lives. Such faith is not complicated or compromised by ego or expectation; such faith is centered in the joy and happiness of the beloved. The power of such simple faith is its ability to overcome every rationalization, fear, complication and agenda in order to mirror the selflessness of Jesus. Christ calls us to the simple faith of a child: to love without condition or return, with honesty and faithfulness. Only in embracing such child-like kindness, compassion, generosity and forgiveness can we attain true greatness in the Kingdom of God.

Through weekly Home Lessons, Family Formation helps parents pass on the Catholic Faith to their children and helps them to grow in faith and holiness. This model enables parents to be “the primary educators in the Faith.” [General Directory for Catechesis (GDC0 255)]. Family Formation follows the three-year liturgical cycle, aiding families in developing traditions that integrate the seasons of the Church. Driven by Sacred scripture, lessons cover all the major principles of the Catholic Faith. Check it out at <https://www.familyformation.net/>
